

Prime Minister Abe visited Hanshin Port.

On Saturday May 16, 2015, Mr. Shinzo Abe, Prime Minister of Japan paid a visit to the City of Kobe including Hanshin Port at the occasion of 20th anniversary of Great Hanshin-Awaji Earthquake.

↑ Prime Minister at RC7 (second from left)

At the rainy container terminal: Kobe RC7 where “NYK Oceanus” (9,120TEUs) was berthed for cargo handling, the Prime Minister was lectured by Mr. Inubushi, Chairman of Kobe-Osaka International Port Corporation (KOIPC) regarding the integration of Kobe and Osaka Port Corporations last October, terminal improvement at Hanshin Port, and business inflow around Rokko Island where RC7 is located.

↑ Prime Minister (left) and Mr. Inubushi, KOIPC

← From left
 Mr. Sakai, NYK
 Mr. Maruyama, NYK
 Mr. Takayama, Mitsubishi Logistics
 Prime Minister
 Mr. Inubushi, Chairman, KOIPC
 Mr. Kubo, Chairman, Japan Harbor
 Transportation Association
 Mr. Hisamoto, Mayor of Kobe
 Mr. Kawabata, President and CEO, KOIPC

Photos by courtesy of Kinki Regional Development Bureau,
 Ministry of Land, Infrastructure, Transport and Tourism